

Accessing Help at Home Information Session

It is important to have freedom of choice and support to live independently at home as you get older. In this seminar we discuss the different support services available to help you with your daily tasks, or specific needs.

Key learning outcomes:

- Understanding what services are available under the Commonwealth Home Support Program
- Understanding what the eligibility criteria is for each level of service and the process to access the services
- Learning about other Commonwealth Government funded services that may be appropriate for you.

This seminar is held at our office on the 3rd Monday of each month

Time: 1-3pm

Cost: $5/session (general public)

FREE Internet and WIFI available
