Volunteers are an integral part of Catalyst Foundation

Catalyst Foundation is a charitable organisation that depends on volunteers to ensure a quality experience for our clients and the smooth running of the organisation. In 2015/16 our volunteers contributed a wonderful 8000 hours to the work we undertake at Catalyst Foundation.

Volunteering offers many benefits, including opportunities for volunteers to:

- gain new skills and knowledge
- boost job and career prospects
- enjoy a sense of achievement and fulfilment
- develop personally and boost self esteem
- enjoy better physical and mental health
- connect to and better understand your community
- meet new people and make new friends.

Why volunteer with Catalyst Foundation?

Volunteers are a valuable resource to Catalyst Foundation staff and the people we assist. Catalyst Foundation ensures that volunteers have meaningful and fulfilling experiences, have adequate supervision and are treated in a respectful manner.

In addition, volunteering at Catalyst Foundation is flexible, fun and social. You can volunteer as much or as little as you like, you can choose to do things you enjoy most and you can enjoy our social events though the year where you can meet other volunteers.

Catalyst Foundation offers a broad range of short-term, long-term and one time volunteer opportunities, including:

- IT Training (one-on-one and group sessions)
- Peer Educators
- Administration including reception and filing
- Database input
- Events including preparation and attendance
- Supporting Special Projects
- Supporting HR/Finance team
